

BEFORE THE ARKANSAS SUPREME COURT
COMMITTEE ON PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT
PANEL A

IN RE: BRADLEY M. CARTER
Arkansas Bar ID #2012186
CPC Docket No. 2020-025

ORDER FOR RECIPROCAL DISCIPLINE

Bradley M. Carter is an attorney practicing primarily in Franklin, Tennessee, licensed in 2012 to practice law in the State of Arkansas, is assigned Arkansas Bar Number 2012186, and who transferred to Voluntary Inactive status in Arkansas in 2016. Carter is also licensed as an attorney in the state of Tennessee in 2005 and assigned Tennessee Board of Professional Responsibility (BPR) Number 024093. On October 9, 2020, the Supreme Court of Tennessee entered an Order of Enforcement against Carter in case No. M2020-01394-SC-BAR-BP in which Carter was suspended from the practice of law for two (2) years, with four (4) months active suspension and the remainder on probation subject to conditions.

Section 14 of the Procedures of the Arkansas Supreme Court Regulating Professional Conduct of Attorneys at Law ("Procedures") provides the procedure for reciprocal discipline regarding licenses of attorneys who have been disbarred, suspended, or transferred to disability inactive status by another state or federal court or a corresponding disciplinary authority of another jurisdiction.

§ 14.F of the Procedures states that the Panel shall impose the identical disbarment, suspension, or transfer to disability inactive status, unless the Panel finds certain elements are present. The Panel found that none of the elements listed in § 14.F of the Procedures were present and, therefore, imposes an identical two year suspension of Mr. Carter's Arkansas law license, with the first four months as active suspension and the remainder on probation subject to conditions.

WHEREFORE, it is the decision and order of the Arkansas Supreme Court Committee on Professional Conduct, acting through its authorized Panel A, that Bradley Carter, Arkansas Bar ID# 2012186, be, and hereby is, SUSPENDED from the practice of law for a period of TWO YEARS WITH THE FIRST FOUR MONTHS AS ACTIVE SUSPENSION AND THE REMAINDER ON PROBATION SUBJECT TO CONDITIONS for his conduct which led to a two year suspension, with the first four months as active suspension and the remainder on probation subject to conditions, of his Tennessee law license. The four month active suspension shall become effective on the date of the filing of this Order.

It is so ordered.
