A Conversation with Arkansas Supreme Court Justices, Thursday, March 7

The Arkansas Supreme Court, in partnership with the Central Arkansas Library System, invites the public to an event that focuses on connecting Arkansans with their state Supreme Court.

The event is a free lecture and Q-and-A on Thursday, March 7, at 6:30 p.m. at the Main Library in the River Market District in downtown Little Rock.

The Main Library is located at 100 Rock Street, Little Rock, 72201.

The event is part of National Judicial Outreach Week, an initiative that aims to increase interaction between the judiciary and the public it serves. Arkansas Supreme Court Chief Justice John Dan Kemp and Justices Rhonda Wood and Robin Wynne will speak and then take questions from the public.

There will also be a presentation by the Executive Director of the Arkansas Access To Justice Commission, Amy Johnson. The Commission aims to provide equal access to justice for all Arkansans.

Please contact Karen Steward at karen.steward@arcourts.gov <sup>[1]</sup> or 501-410-1935 with any questions. While an RSVP is not required, it is much appreciated for planning purposes.

Presentations include:

Chief Justice John Dan Kemp:
Goals For the Arkansas Judiciary

Justice Robin Wynne:
The Tiers of the Arkansas Court System

Justice Rhonda Wood:
Ensuring Fair and Impartial Courts

Amy Johnson, Executive Director of Arkansas Access To Justice:
Addressing the Unmet Legal Needs of Arkansans
