

Arkansas Administrative Office of the Courts

Alternative Dispute Resolution Commission

Friday, April 19th, 2024

Delta Hotel by Marriott, Little Rock

8:30 – 8:45 Ballroom	Welcome &amp; Announcements
8:45 – 9:45 Ballroom	Artificial Intelligence and ADR: Best Practices and Ethical Insights This cutting-edge program offers a comprehensive overview of the field of AI-driven tools, focusing on the dynamic interplay between technology and conflict resolution. The program thoughtfully outlines best practices for integrating Large Language Models while also delving into the responsibilities and ethical considerations of such integration. This ensures that participants are not only equipped with the latest technological skills but also maintain a strong ethical awareness in their application. Ana Sambold, Esq.   Arbitrator - Mediator Chair, ABA Dispute Resolution Section
9:45 – 10:00	Break
10:00 – 11:00	Breakout Sessions Track A - Civil Harnessing Emotional Intelligence in Mediation Margaret Crowley   Attorney - Mediator Mediator Training Center Ballroom Track B - Family Custody Mediation and Domestic Violence Applying Ethics to Enhance Safety Melissa Mangiaracina   Attorney - Mediator Mediator Training Center Hamilton
11:00 – 11:15	Break
11:15 – 12:15 Ballroom	Managing Power Differentials in an Online Mediation Power differentials play a role in deciding whether in-person, online or hybrid is best. In this workshop, faculty will share existing data on the topic, their own experiences with online power differentials and techniques to address them. Margaret Crowley and Melissa Mangiaracina   Partners Mediator Training Center
12:15 – 1:15	Lunch Provided
1:15 – 2:15	Breakout Sessions Track A – Civil From Theory to Practice: Navigating Generative AI Tools Ana Sambold   Attorney – Mediator Chair, ABA Dispute Resolution Section Ballroom Track B – Family Dependency/Neglect Facilitations Kelly Browe Olson   Associate Professor of Law Mediation Clinic Director Hamilton
2:15 – 2:30	Break
2:30 – 3:30 Ballroom	The Lasso Effect: Channeling your Inner Coach in Mediation A light-hearted look at incorporating patience, leadership, optimism, and perseverance into your mediation practice by applying the philosophies and insights of Ted Lasso. Sharon Corsentino   Attorney - Mediator Sharon Corsentino Mediations
3:40 - 4:40 Ballroom	Mediation: A View from The Bench A discussion of the appointment/order process in mediation. Judge Shannon Blatt , Twelfth Judicial Circuit Court, Division 3 Judge Randy Morledge , First Judicial Circuit Court, Division 3