

Up the Ladder & Down the Chute..
Advancements/Hiccups for New eFiling Courts

Office of Research and Justice Statistics

- Scott E. Graves, Director
- Regional Court Administrators
 - Dawn Castle
 - Connie Compton
 - Sheri Cole
 - Lorna Cross
 - Andrea Russell
 - Vacant

Advantages of eFiling

- Reduced cost of office supplies
- Instant access to case documents
- Less storage space needed
- Reduced phone calls, office traffic, mail, and faxes

Some things you still must do in Contexte

- Search for party IDs.
- Add statistical docket codes and associate them
- Associate a party to statistical docket codes in criminal and juvenile cases.
- Adding and Disposing of Violations

Hint: Take advantage of eFlex Queues (To-do Lists)

DATA – Before & After eFiling

Items Reviewed for Data Quality Comparison

- Reviewed data quality of a few eFiling courts before and after eFiling began related to 4 areas.
 - MF docket code added to a case
 - MD docket code added after disposition
 - @IDs increase or decrease
 - Party associated to MF/MD codes in criminal and juvenile

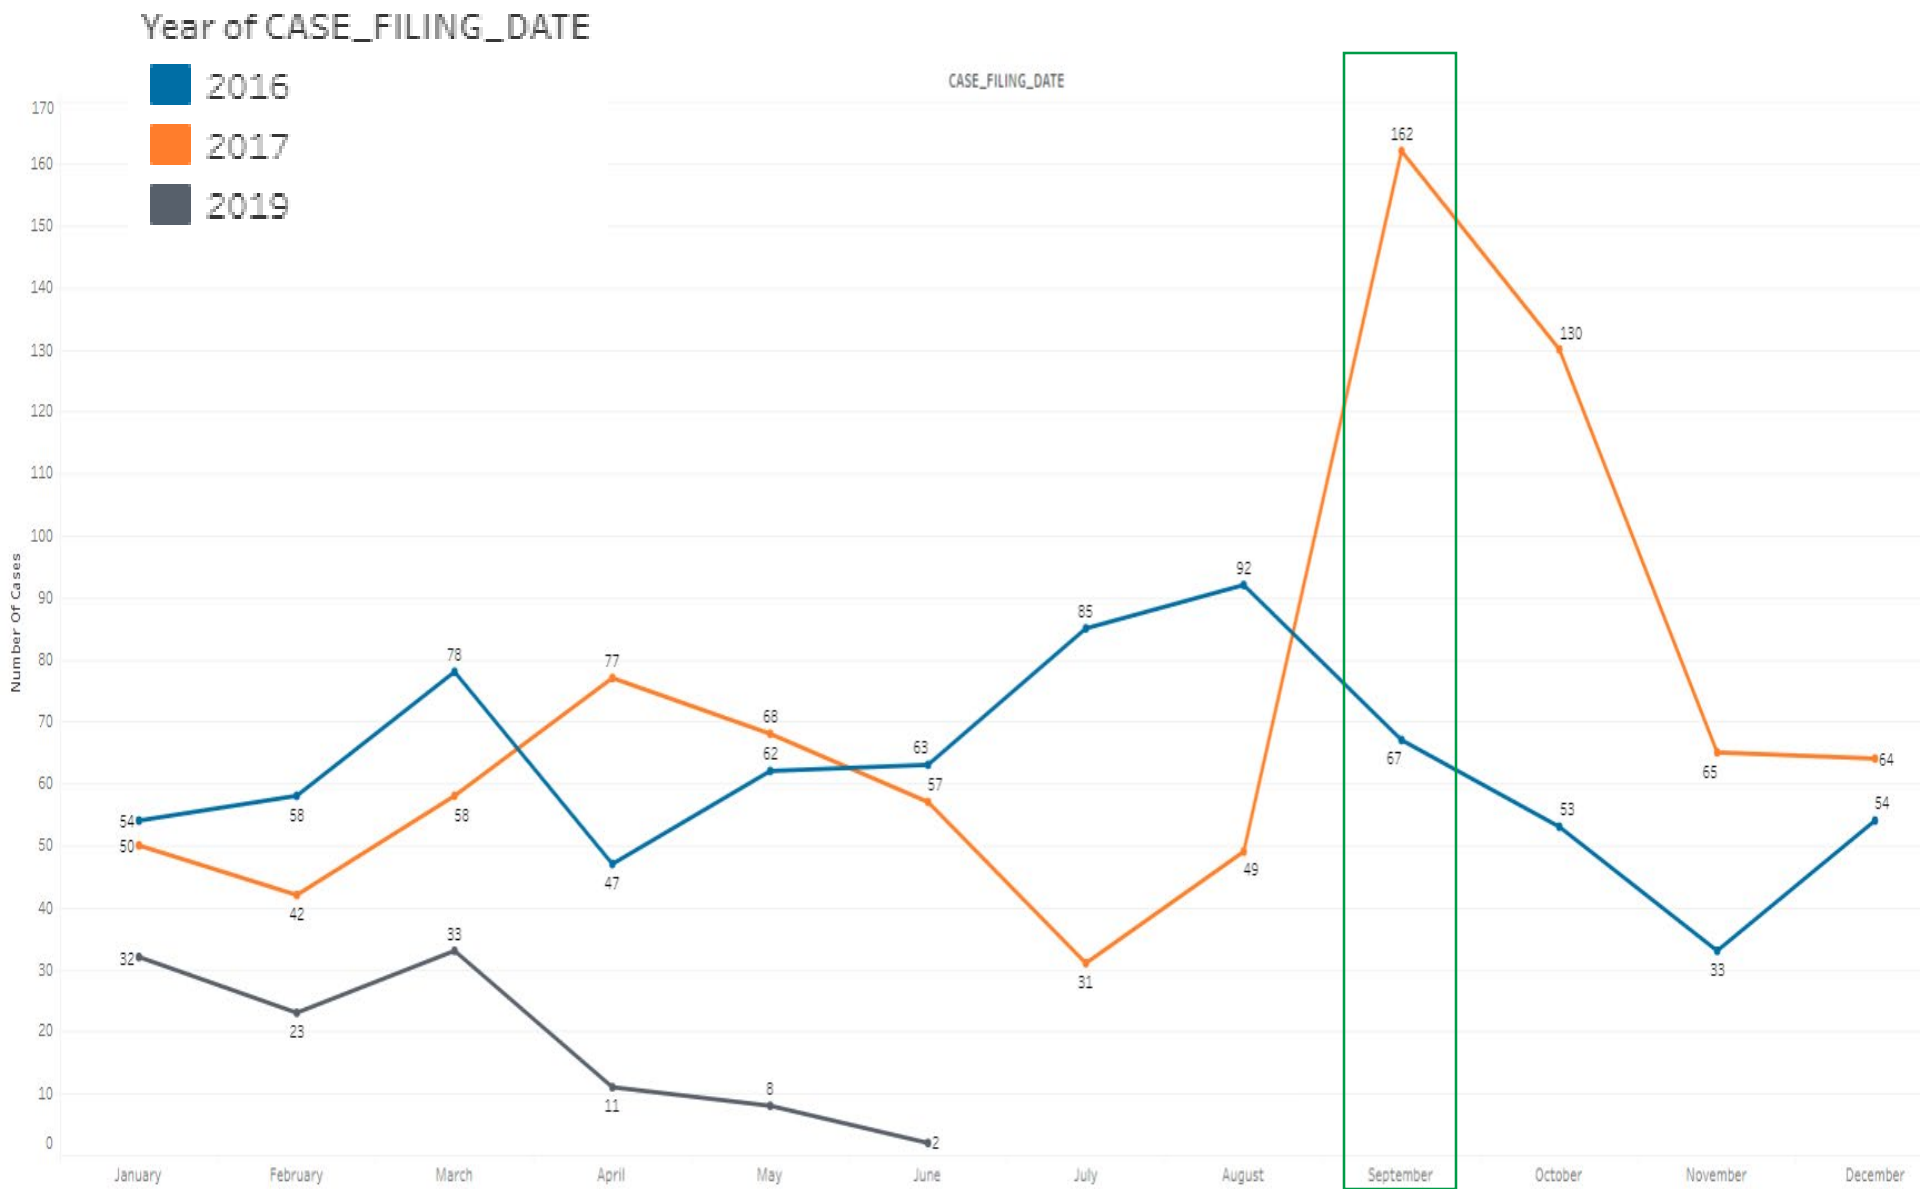

Manner of Filing Docket Code on New Cases Filed

- Reviewed a sample of eFiling courts before and after eFiling began.
- Did it take more than 7 days after the case was filed for the Manner of Filing docket code to be added?

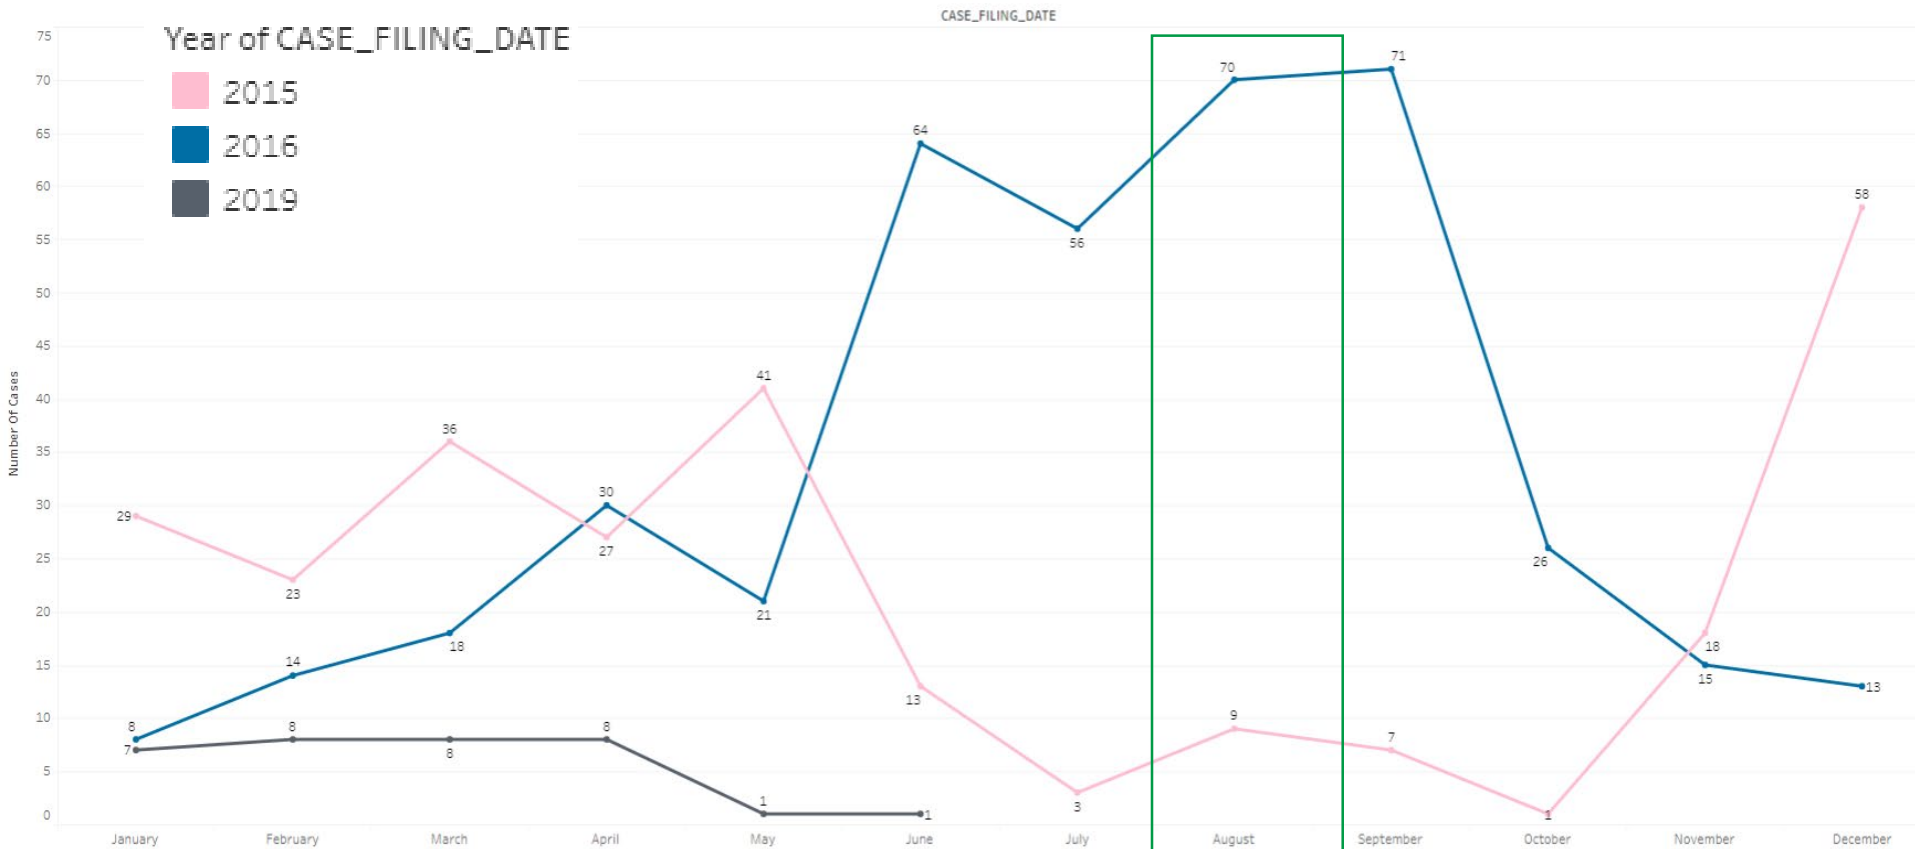

TREND – Number of Cases with a Manner of Filing Added 7 or more days after case filing date.

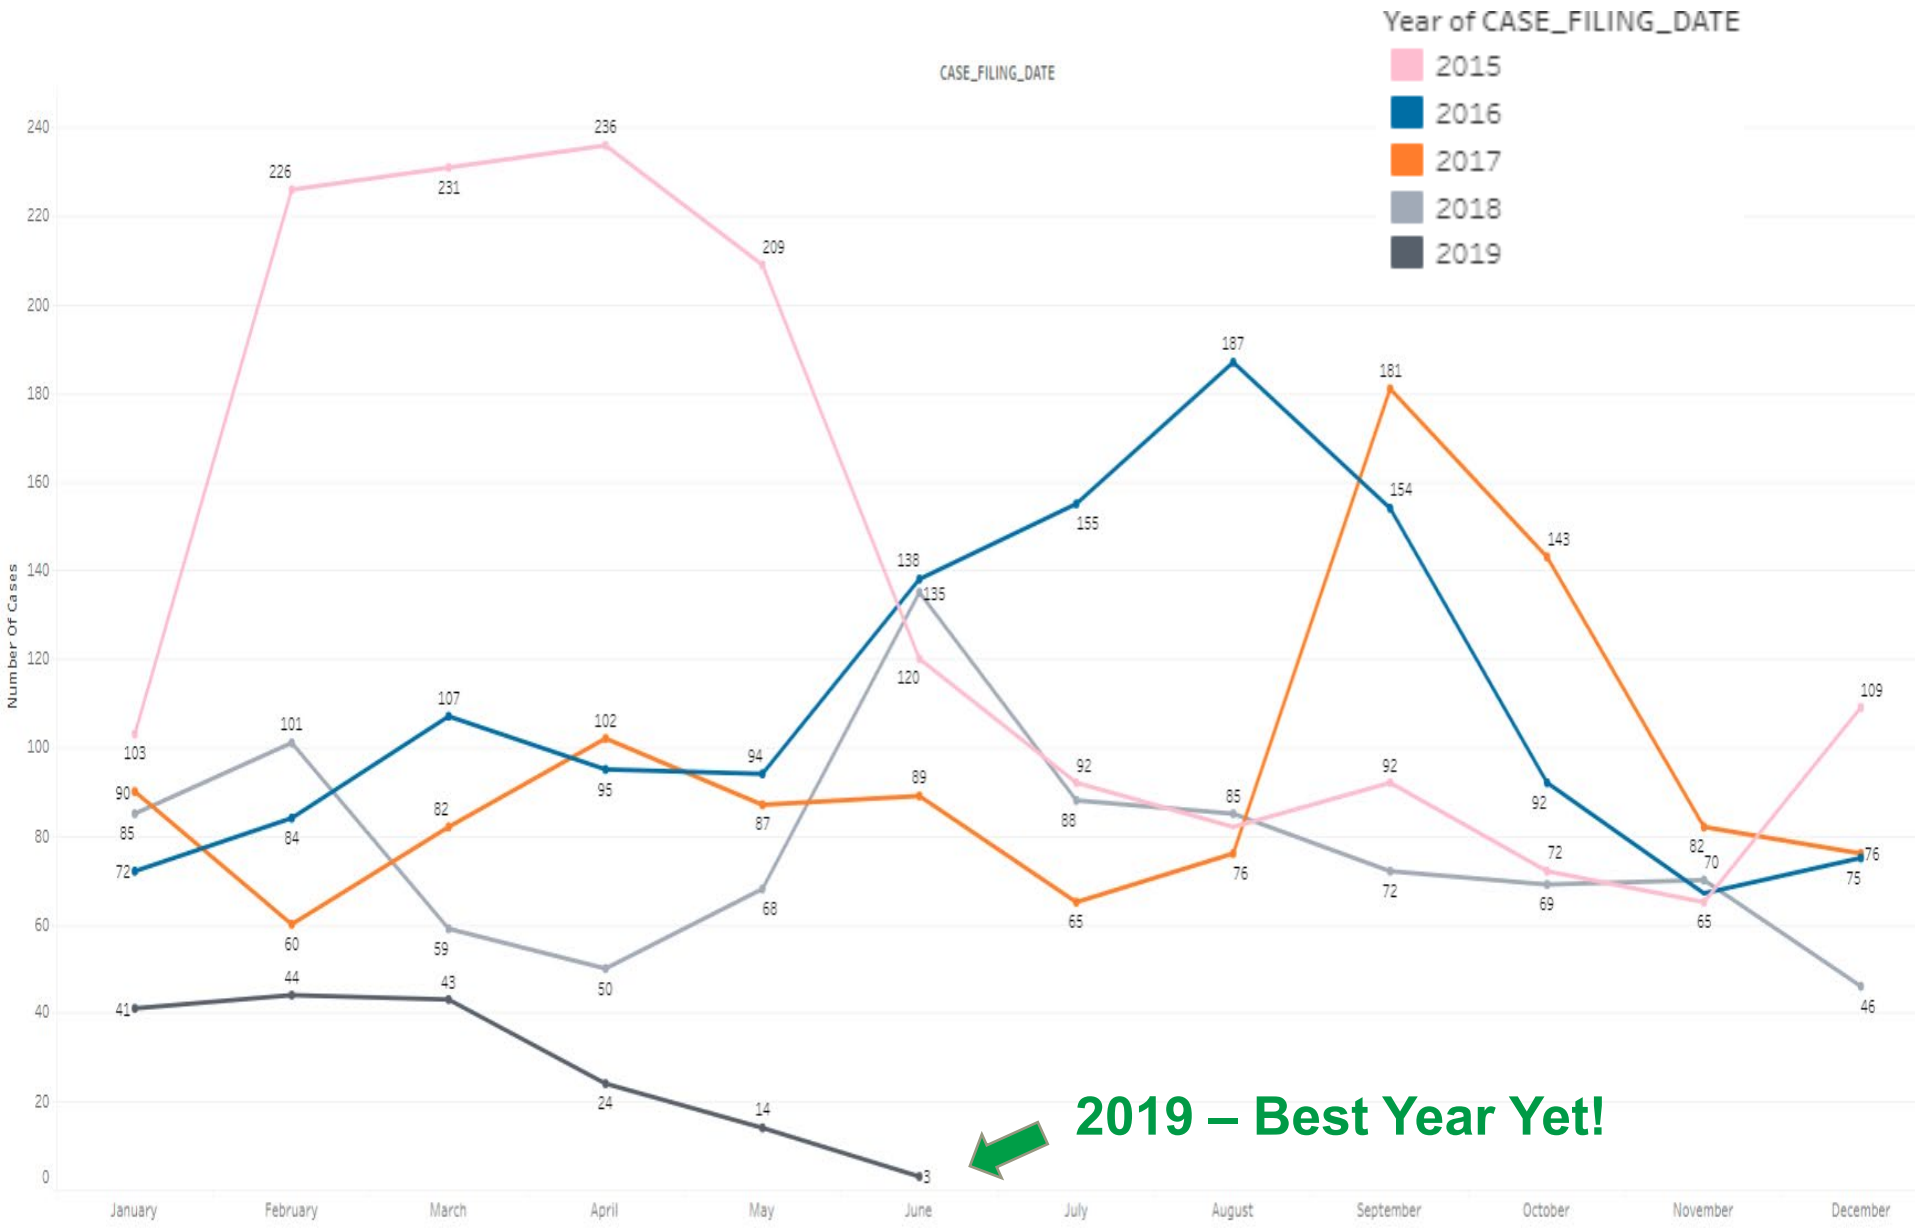

TREND – Number of Cases with a Manner of Filing Added 7 or more days after case filing date.

TREND – Number of Cases with a Manner of Filing Added 7 or more days after case filing date.

TREND – Number of Cases with a Manner of Filing Added 7 or more days after case filing date.

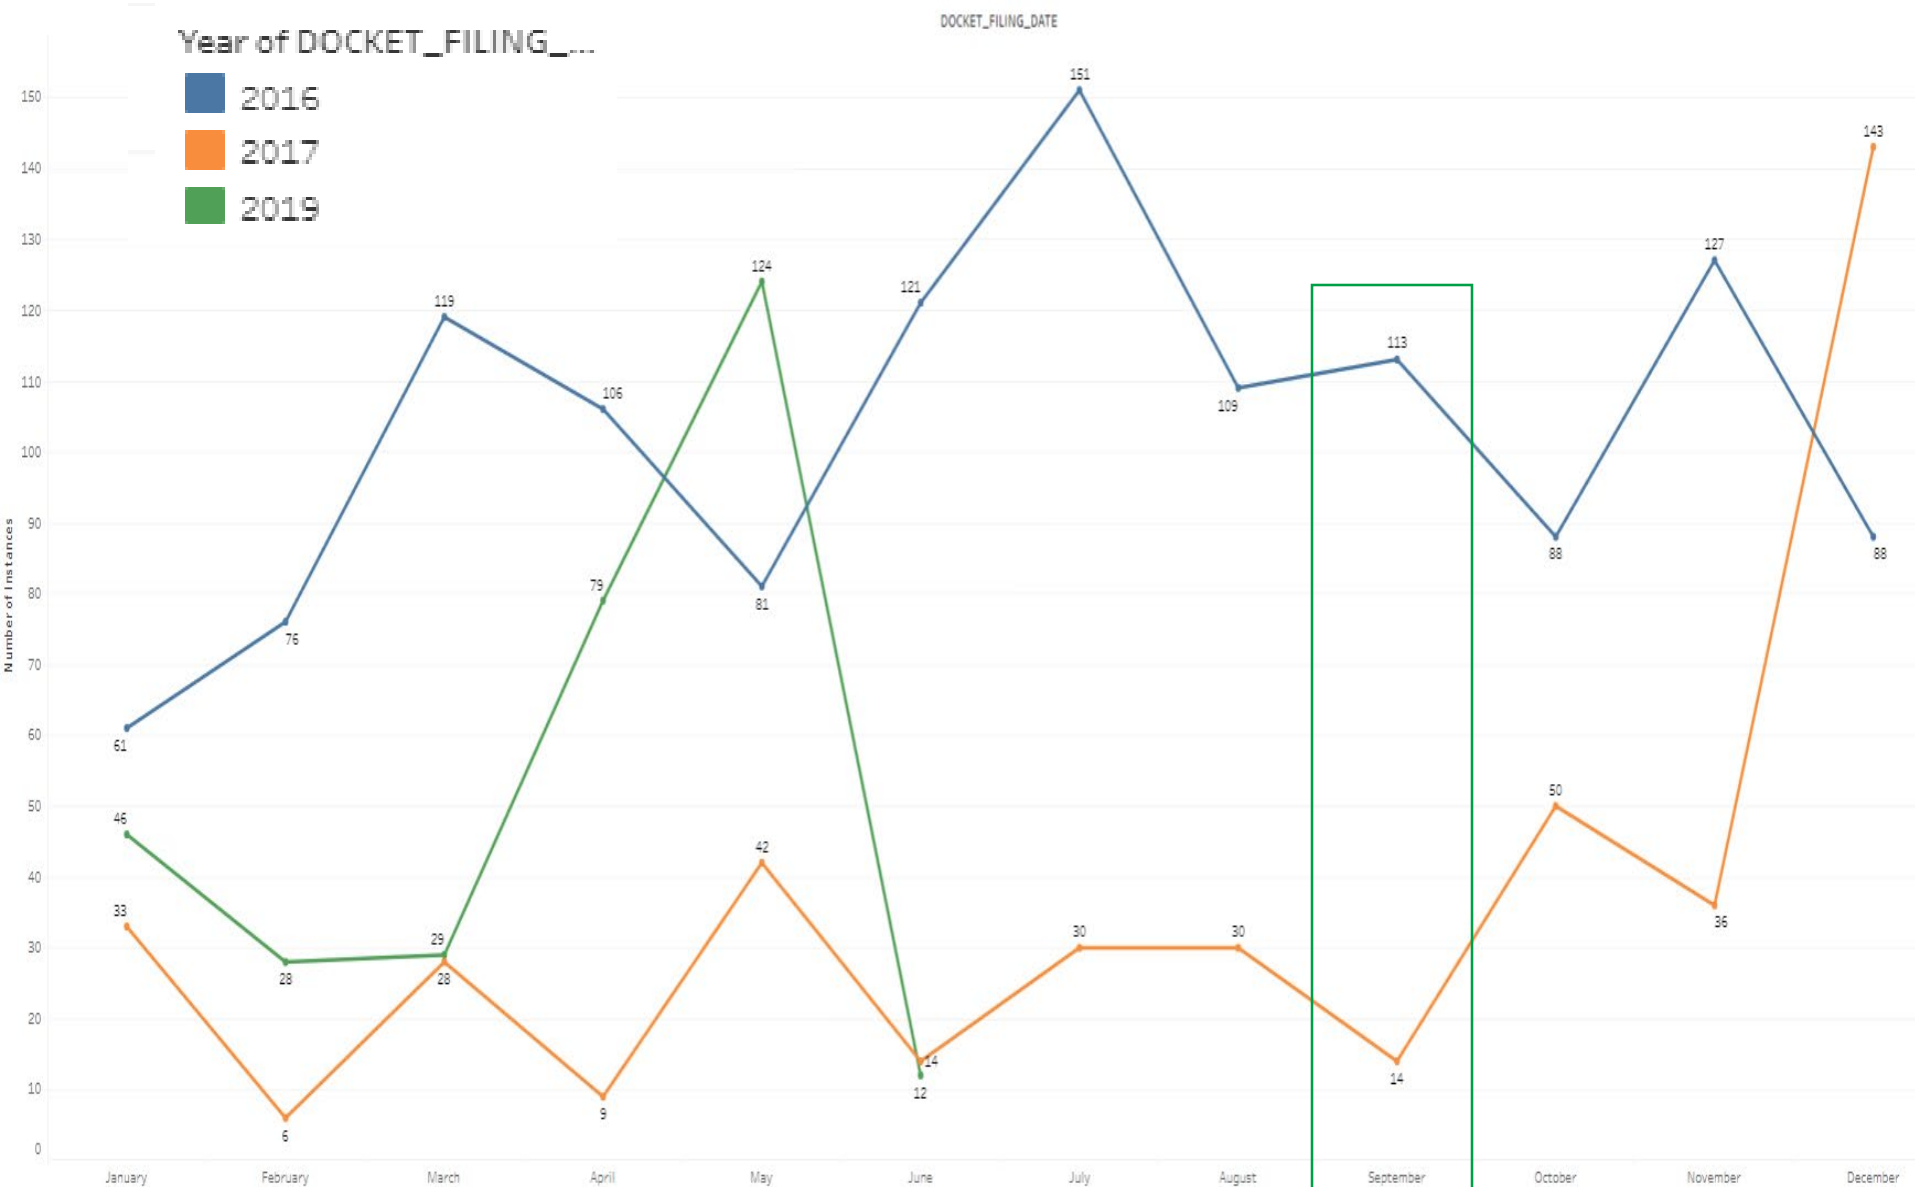

Manner of Disposition Docket Code on Criminal Cases After Certain Closing Orders

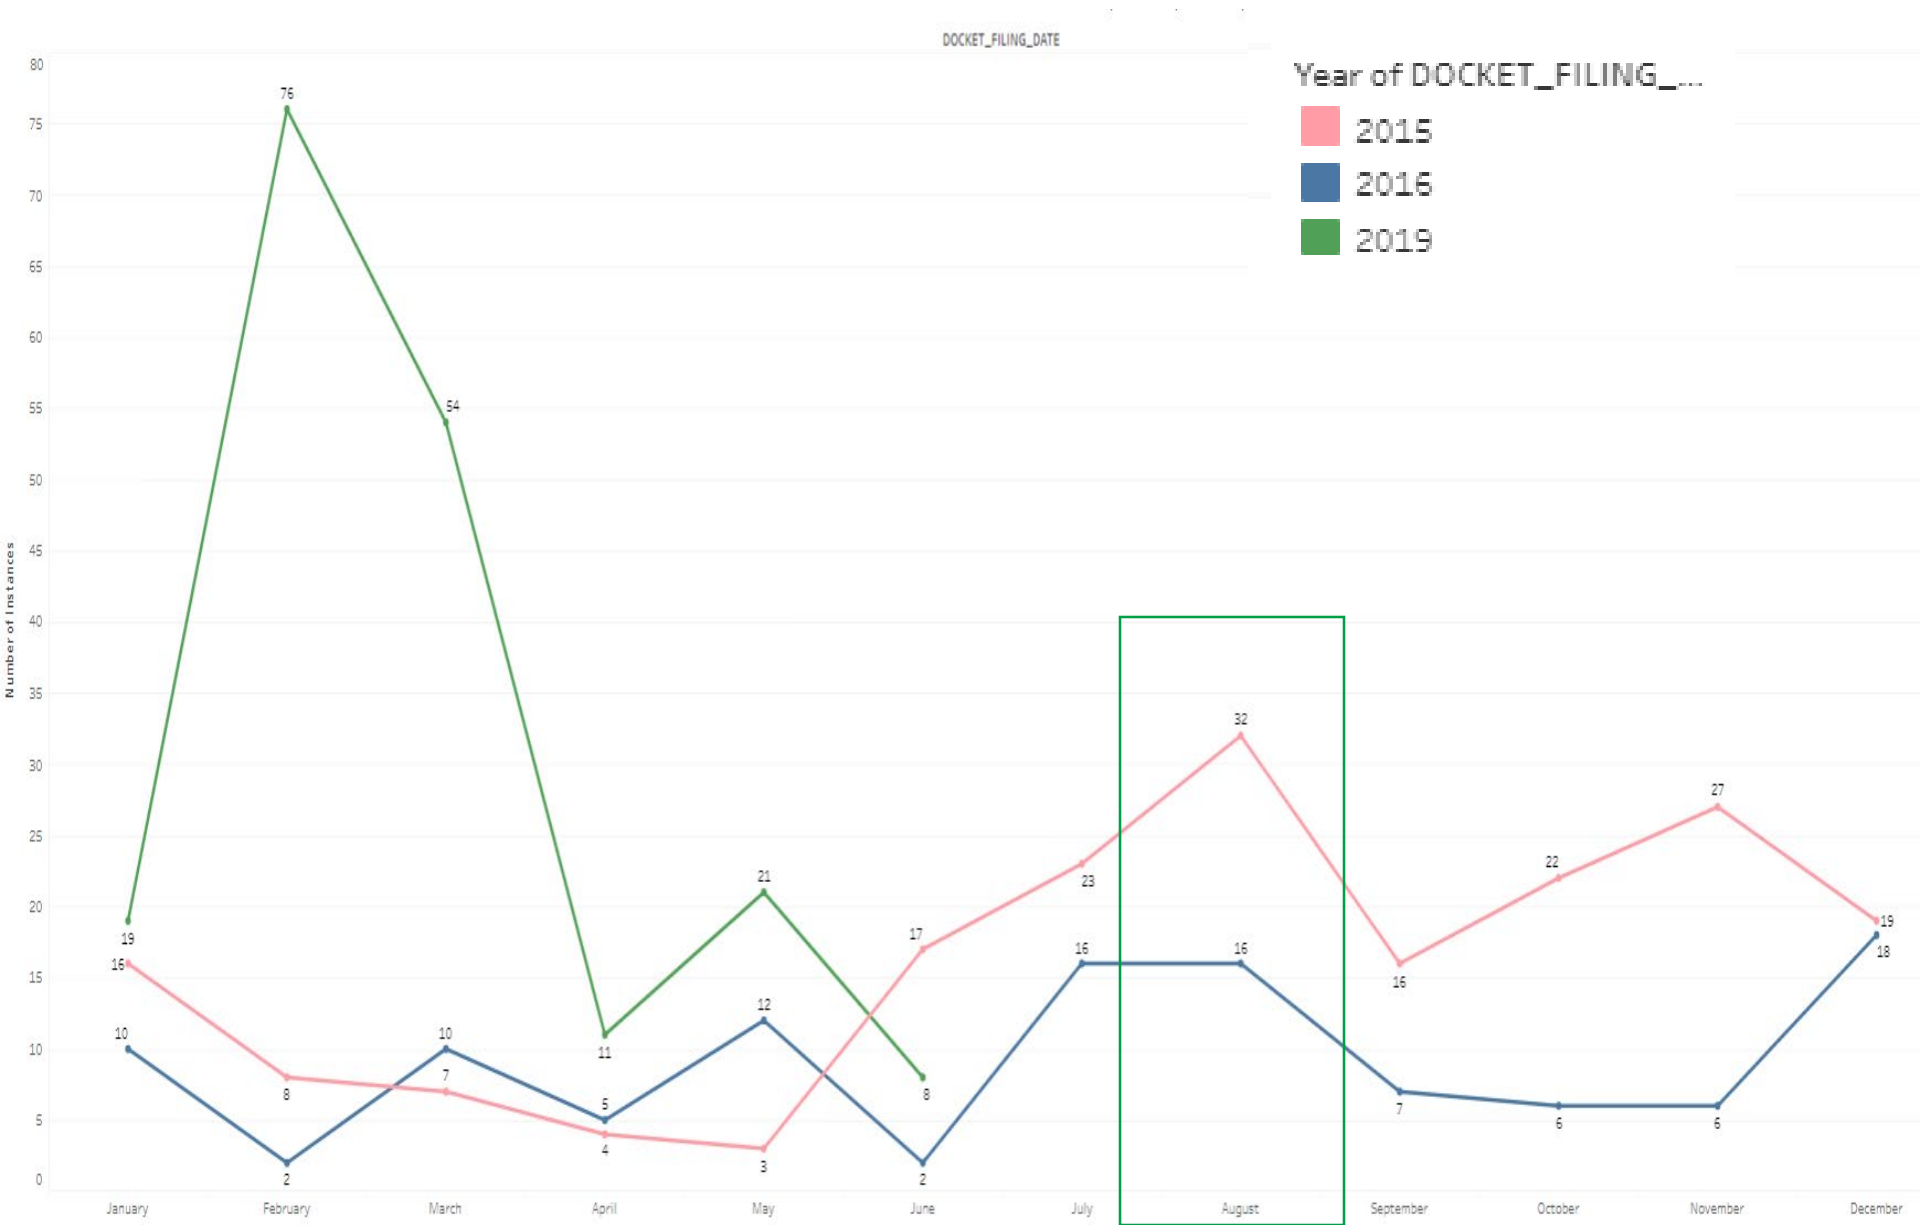

- Reviewed a sample of eFiling courts before and after eFiling began.
- After certain closing orders were filed, did it take 7-100 days for the Manner of Disposition docket code to be added?
 - JJ05 Sentencing Order
 - OR752 Order Nolle Prosequi
 - ORC0D Order to Dismiss
 - JU28 Judgment - Dismiss

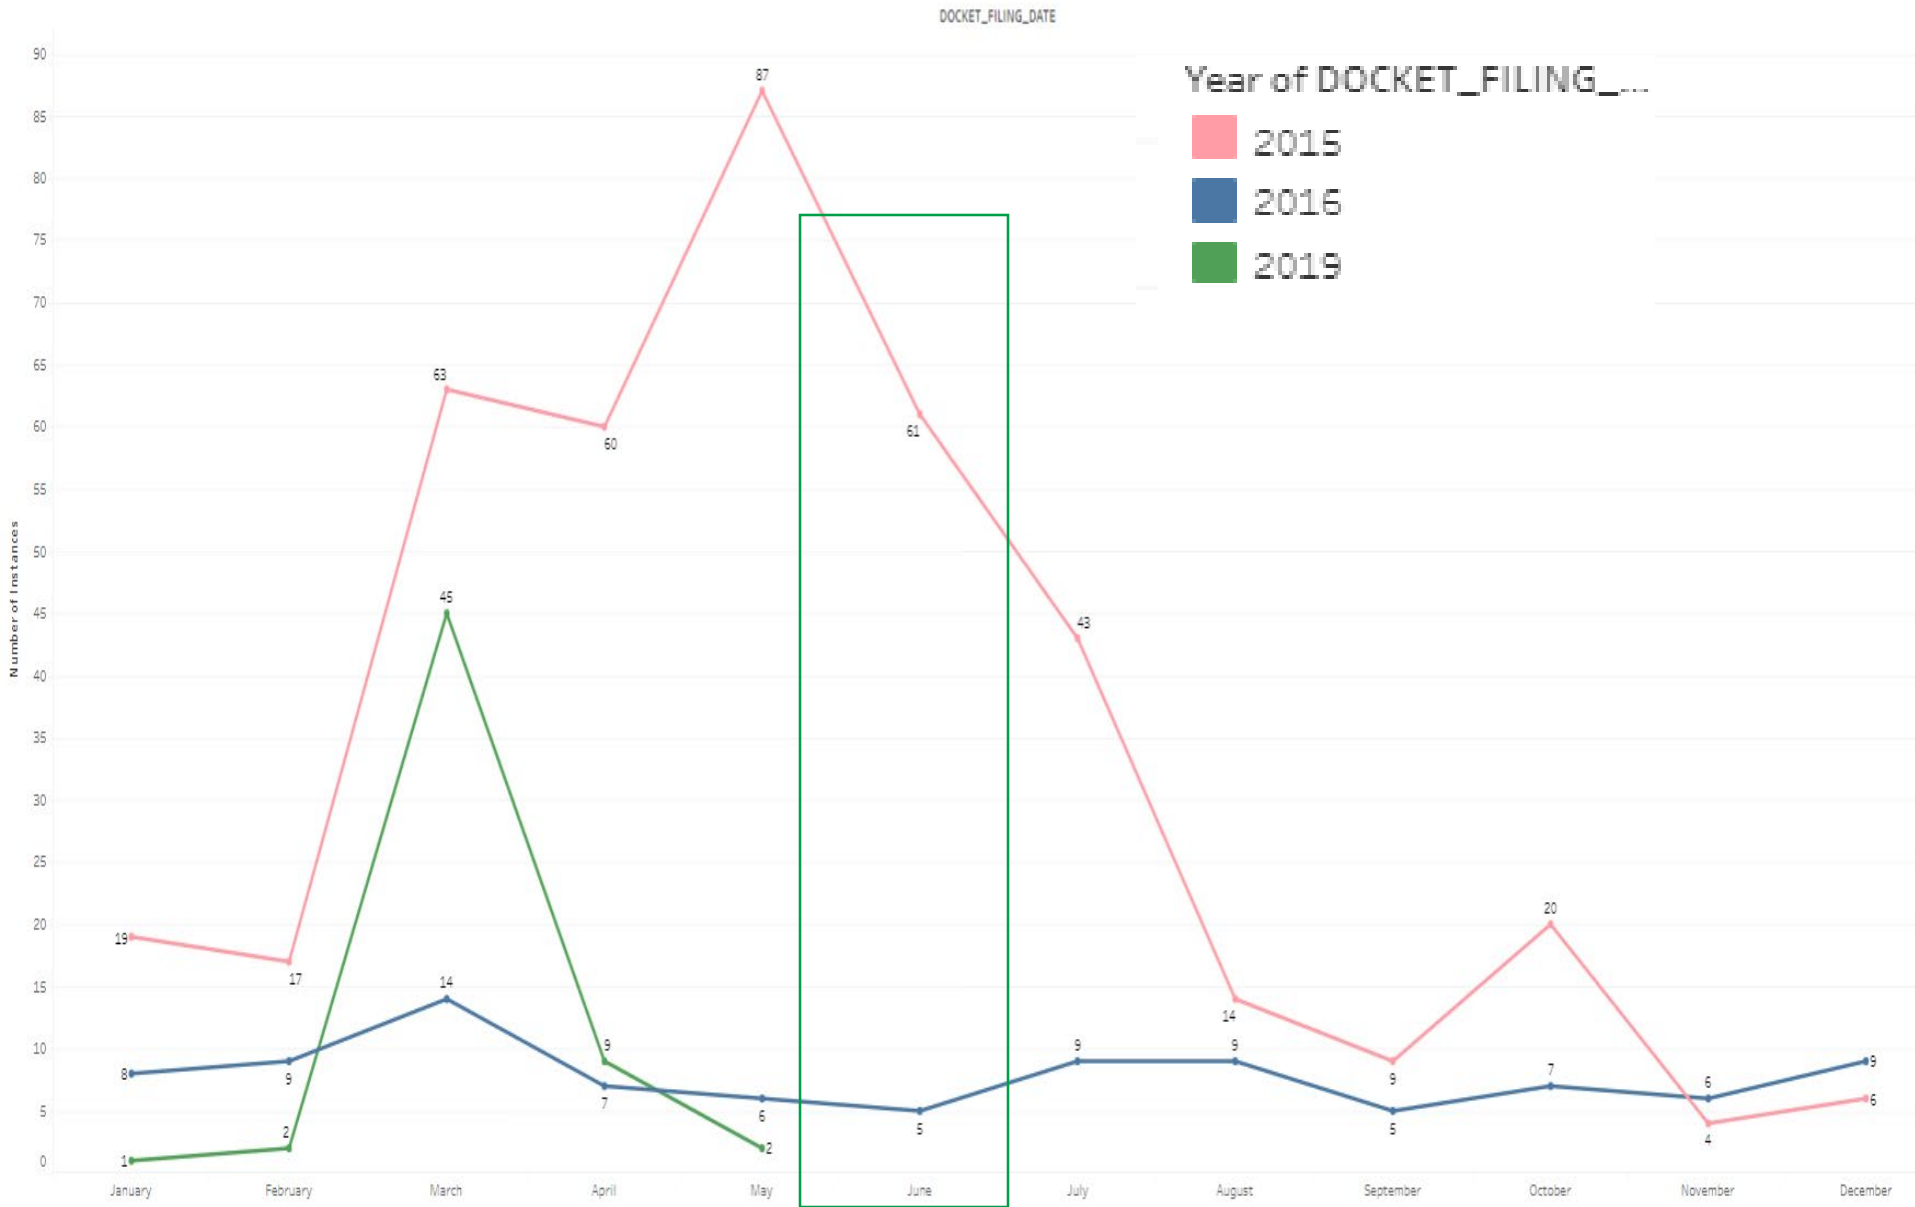

Trend - Manner of Disposition Docket Code on Criminal Cases After Certain Closing Orders

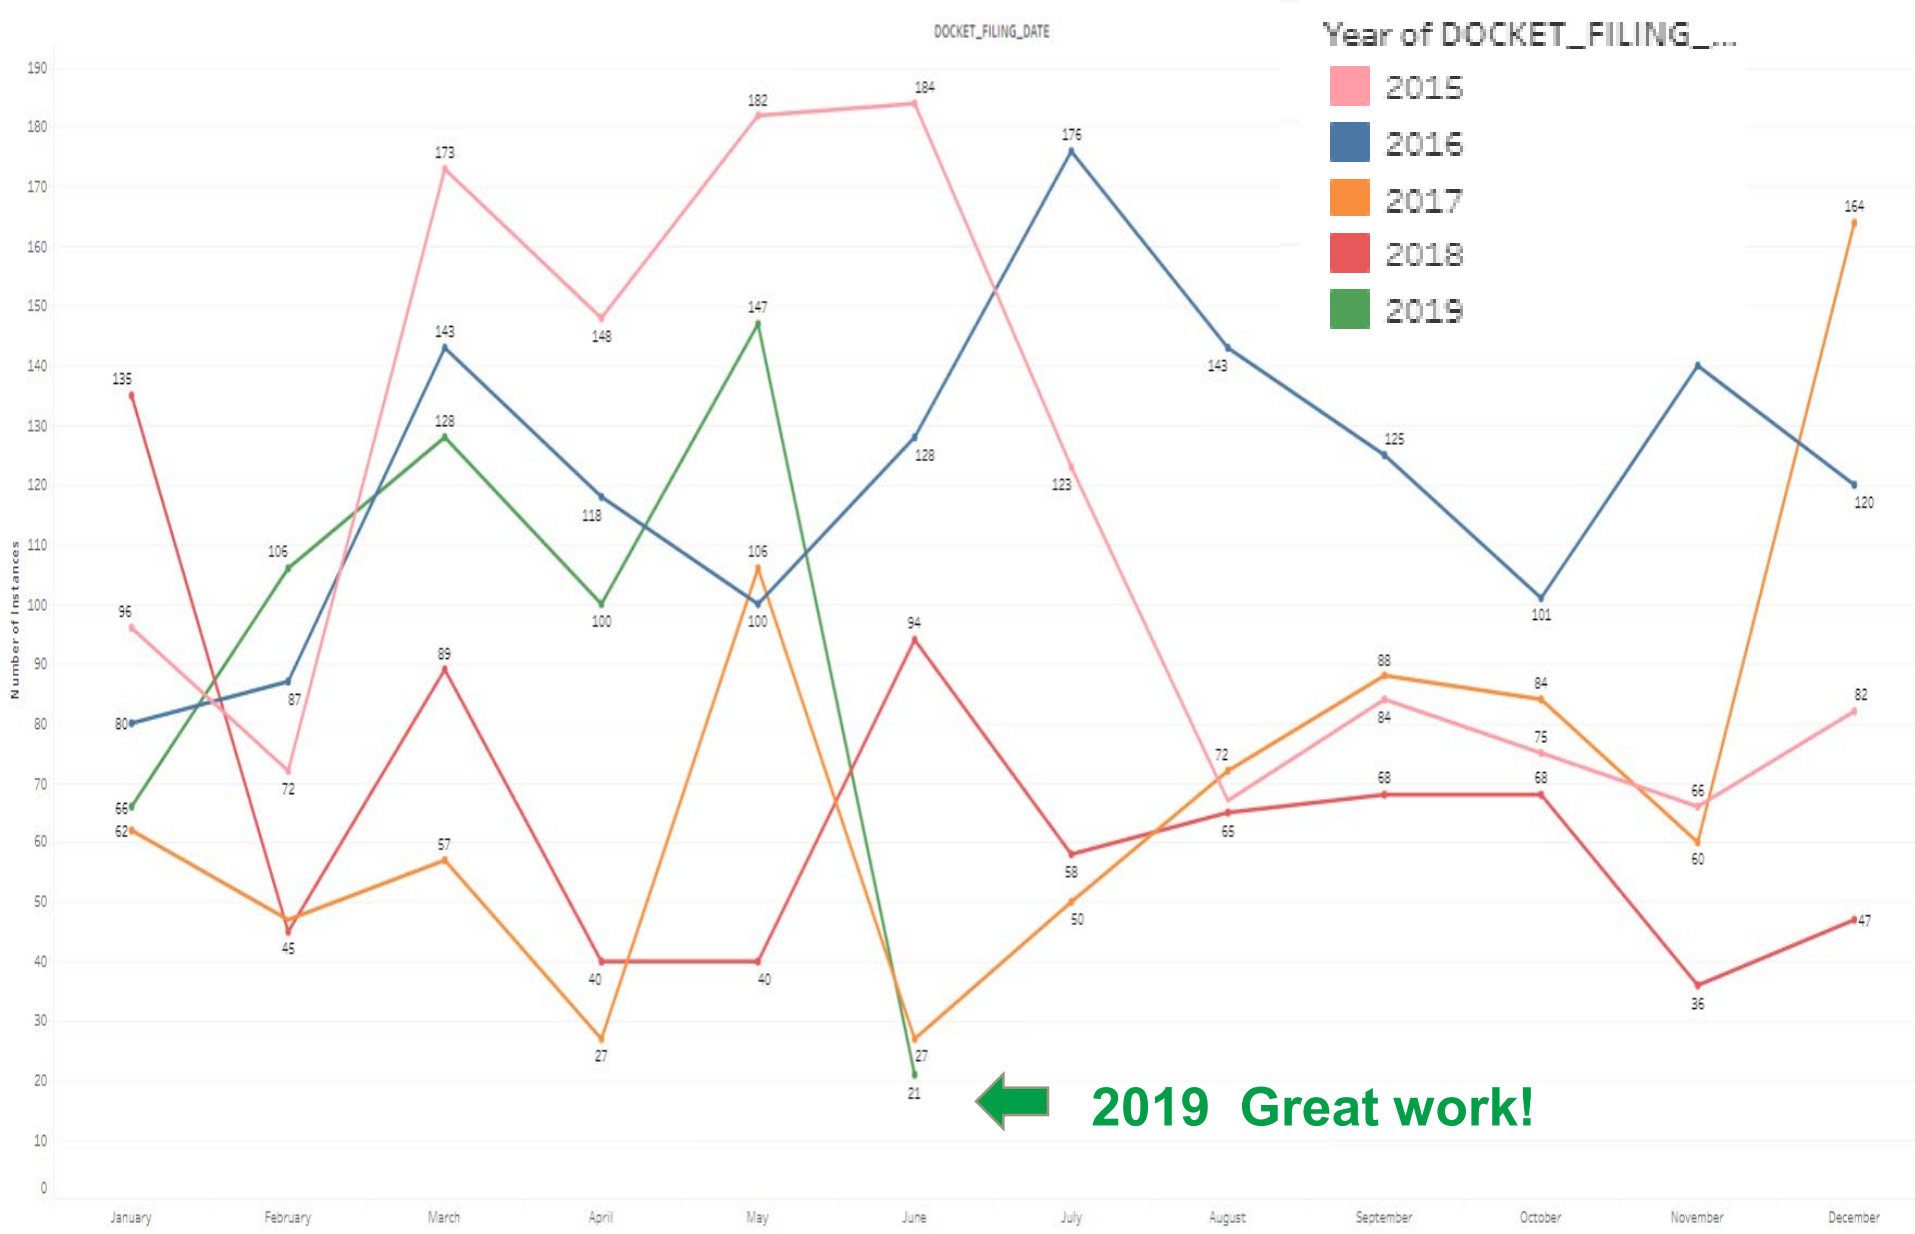

TREND – Manner of Disposition Docket Code Added to Criminal Cases 7-100 days after Closing Order

TREND – Manner of Disposition Docket Code Added to Criminal Cases 7-100 days after Closing Order

TREND – Manner of Disposition Docket Code Added to Criminal Cases 7-100 days after Closing Order

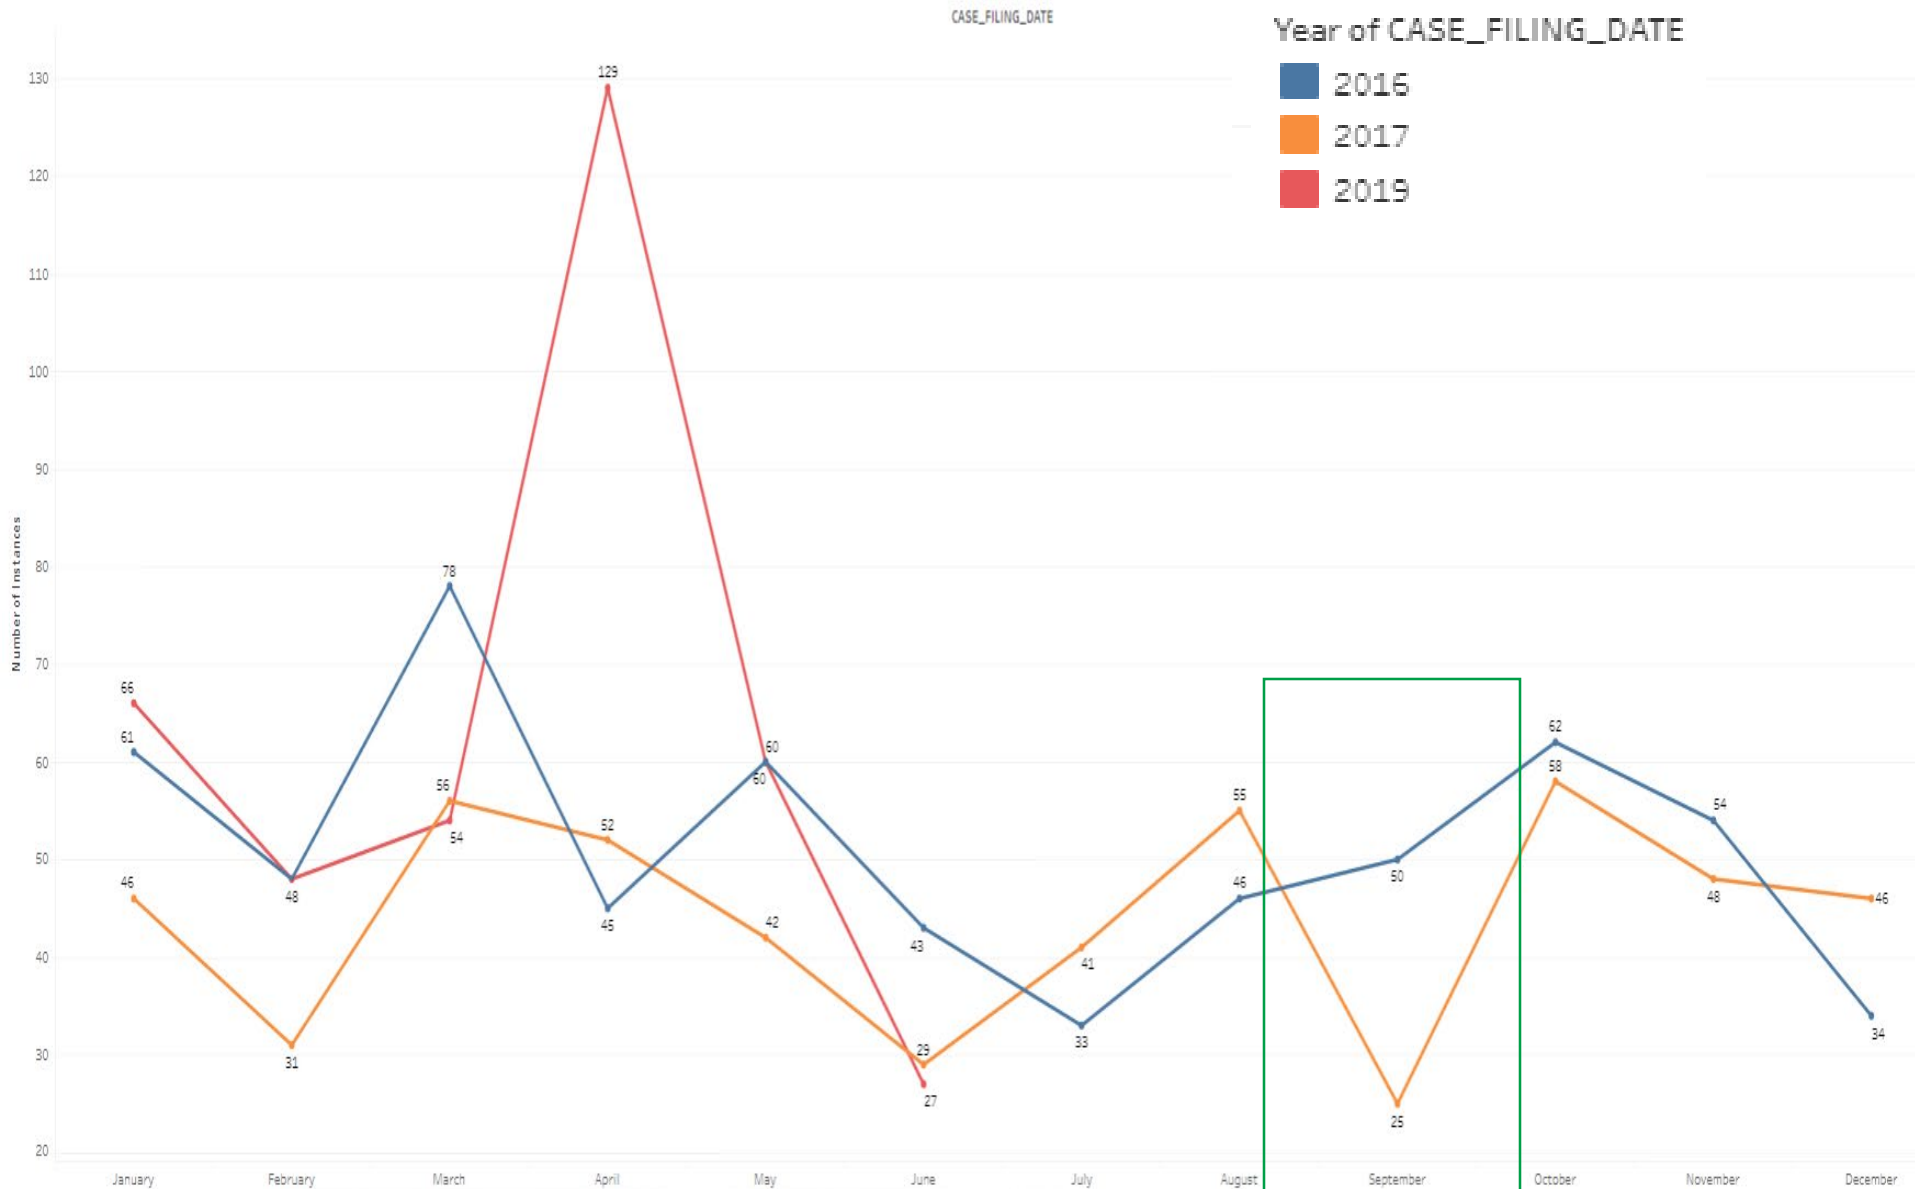

Use of @IDs in Criminal and Juvenile Cases Before and After eFiling

- Reviewed a sample of eFiling courts before and after eFiling began.
- Were @IDs used on criminal and juvenile cases more or less after eFiling?

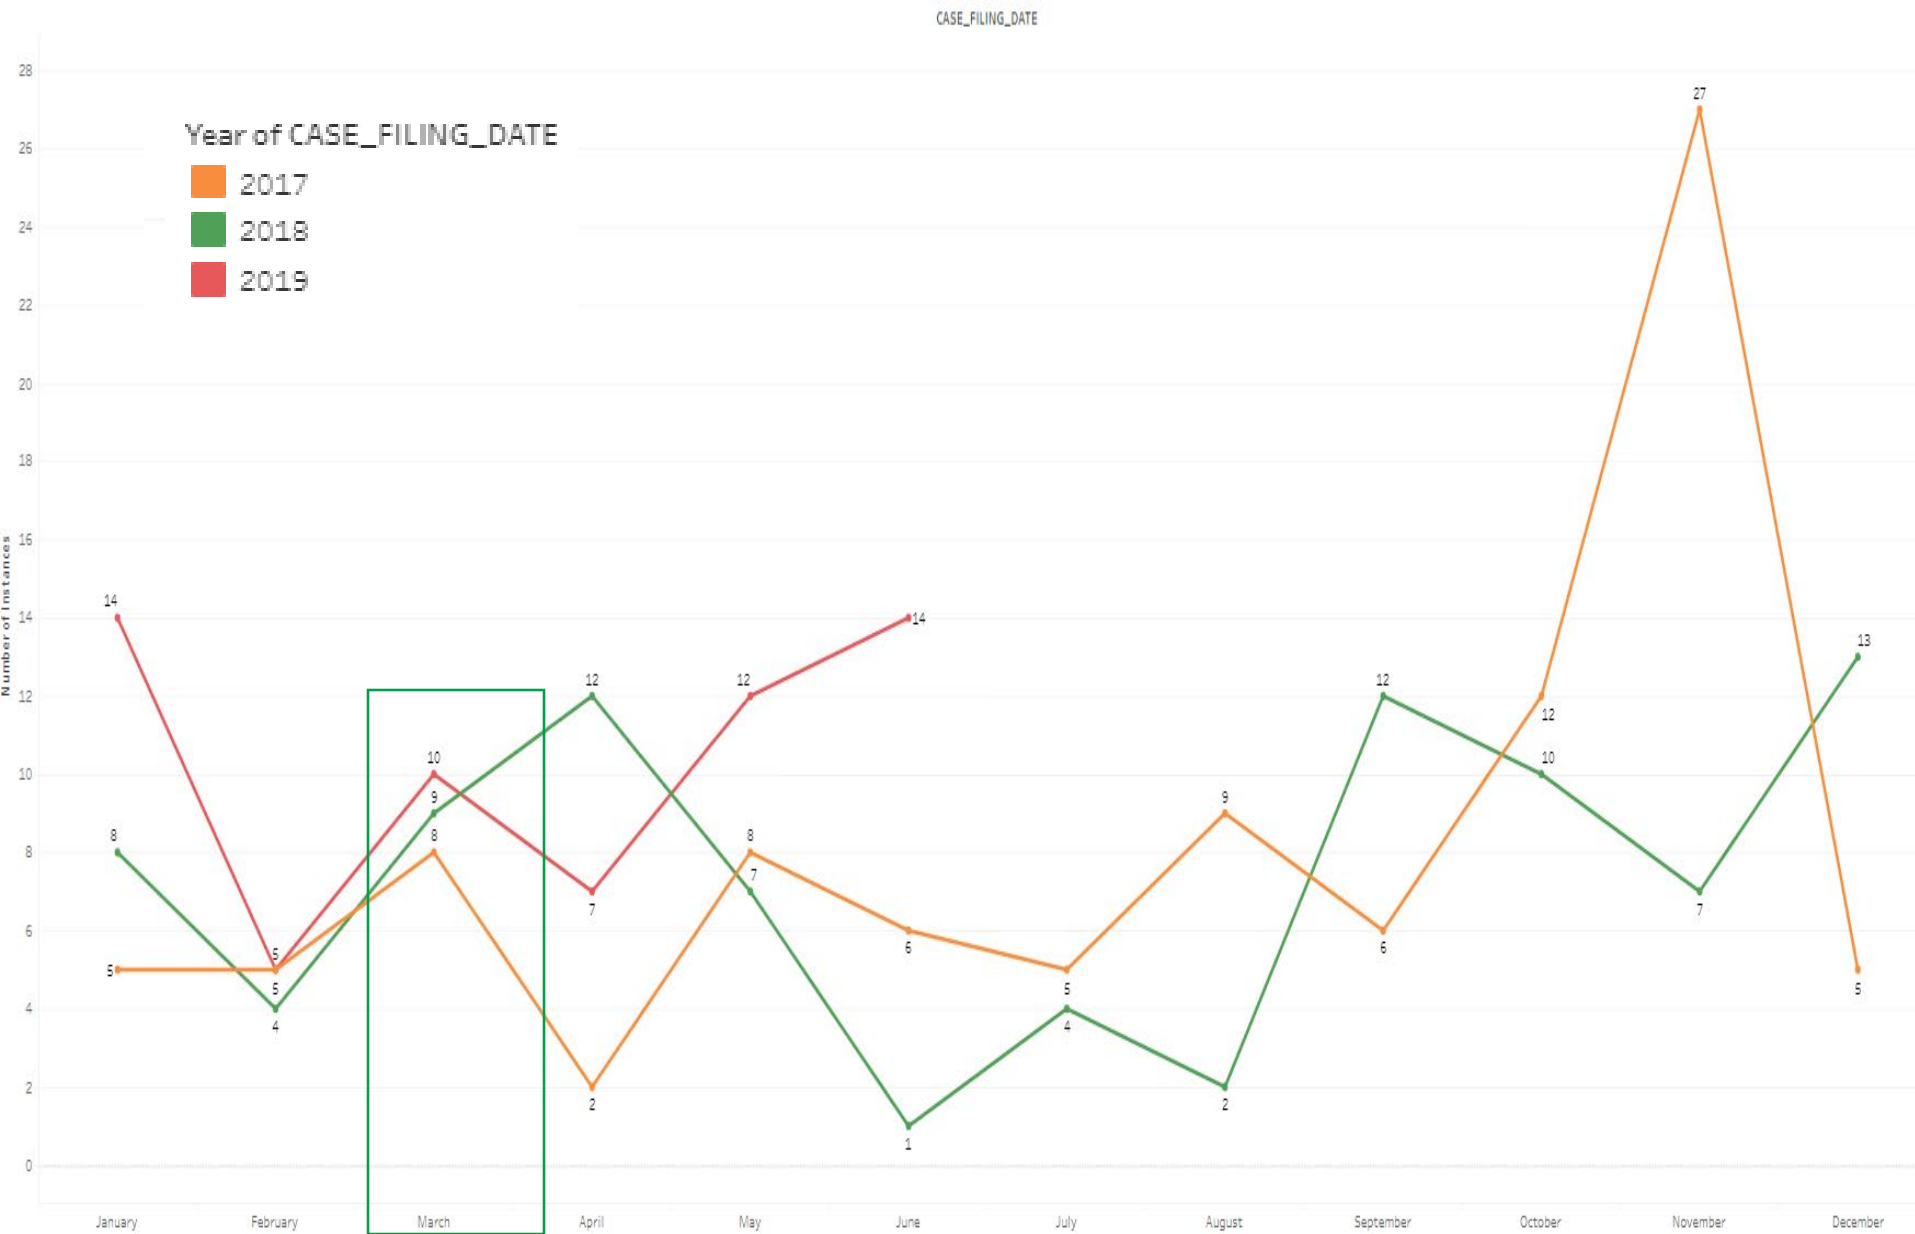

Trend - Use of @IDs in Criminal and Juvenile Cases Before and After eFiling

Trend - Use of @IDs in Criminal and Juvenile Cases Before and After eFiling

Trend – Use of @IDs in Criminal and Juvenile Cases Before and After eFiling

Trend - Use of @IDs in Criminal and Juvenile Cases Before and After eFiling

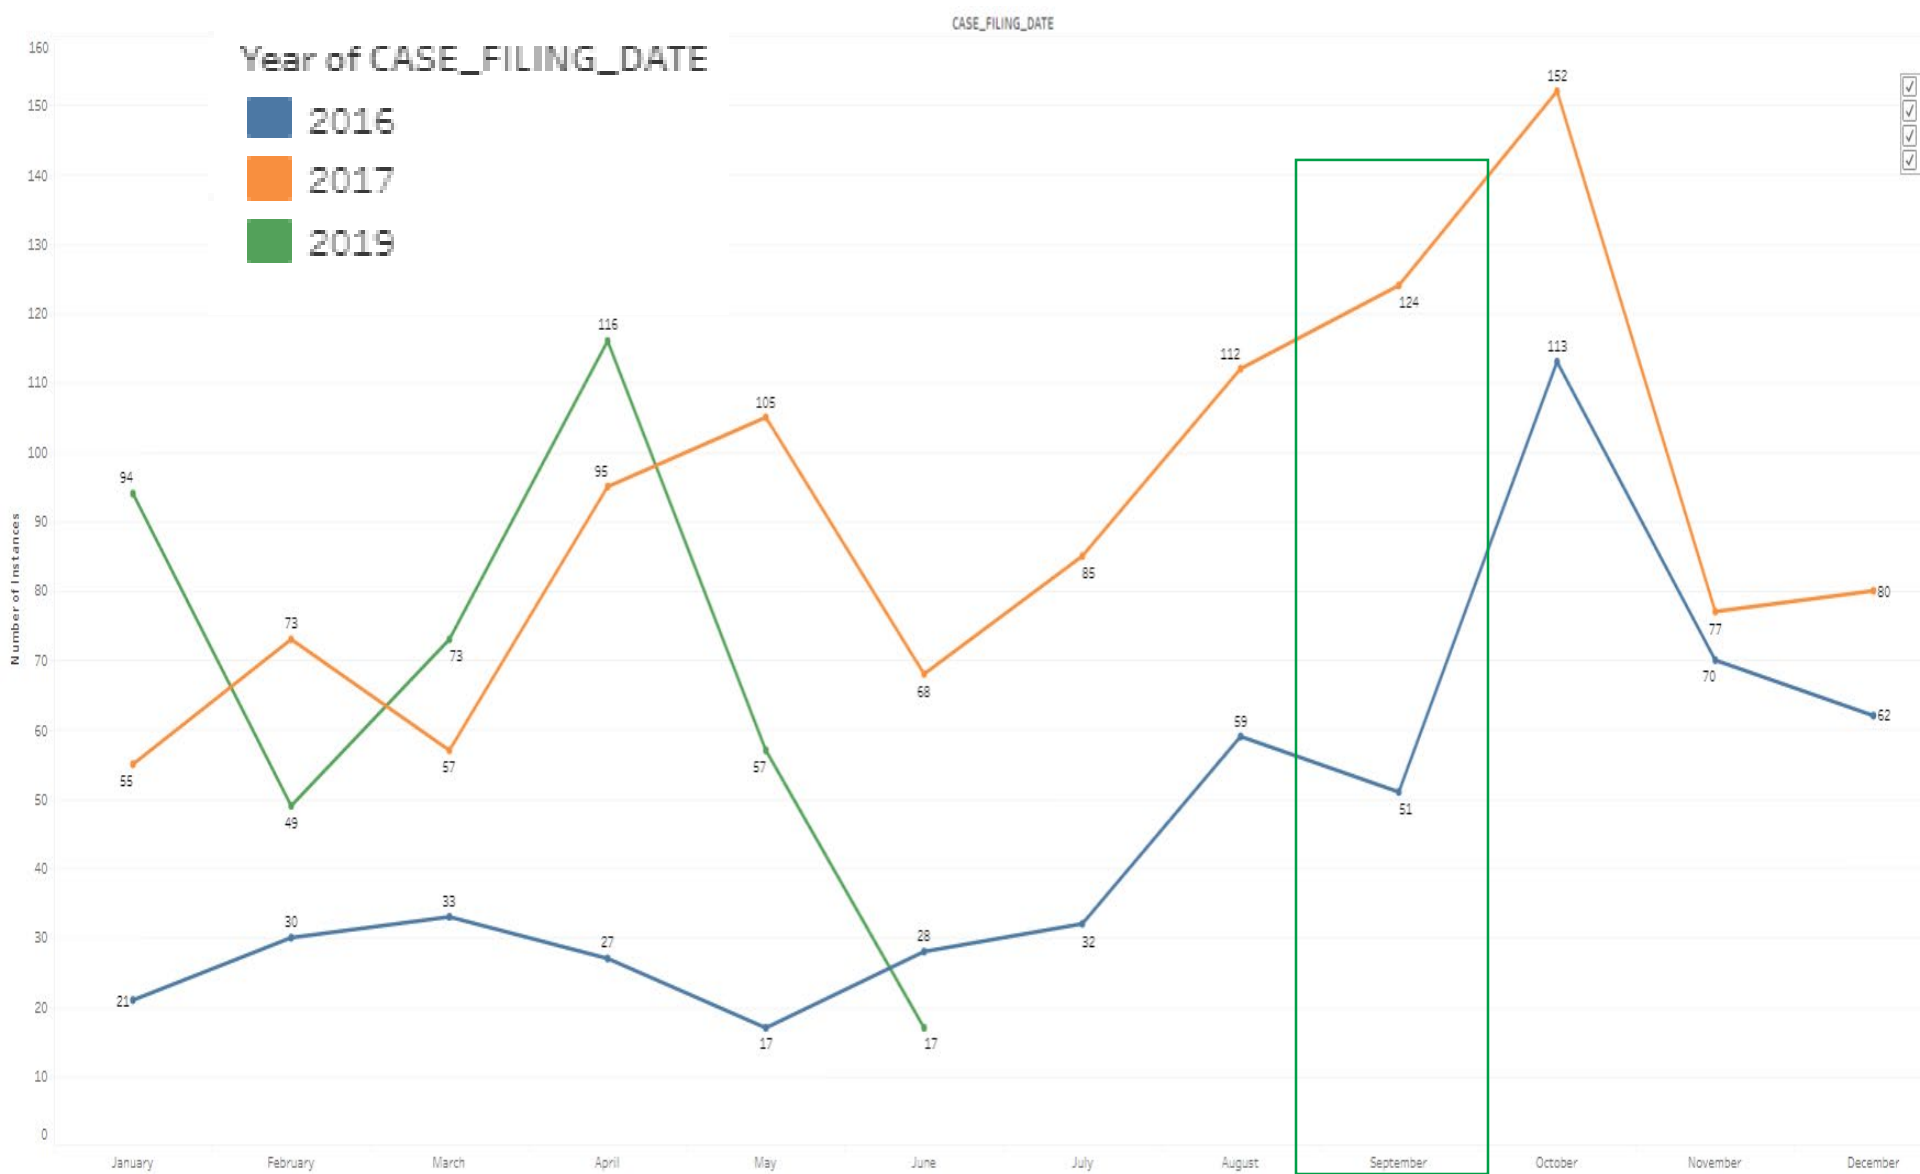

Defendants and Juveniles Associated to Statistical MF and MD Docket Codes

- Reviewed a sample of eFiling courts before and after eFiling began.
- In criminal and juvenile cases, were the defendants / juveniles associated to the MF and MD docket codes?

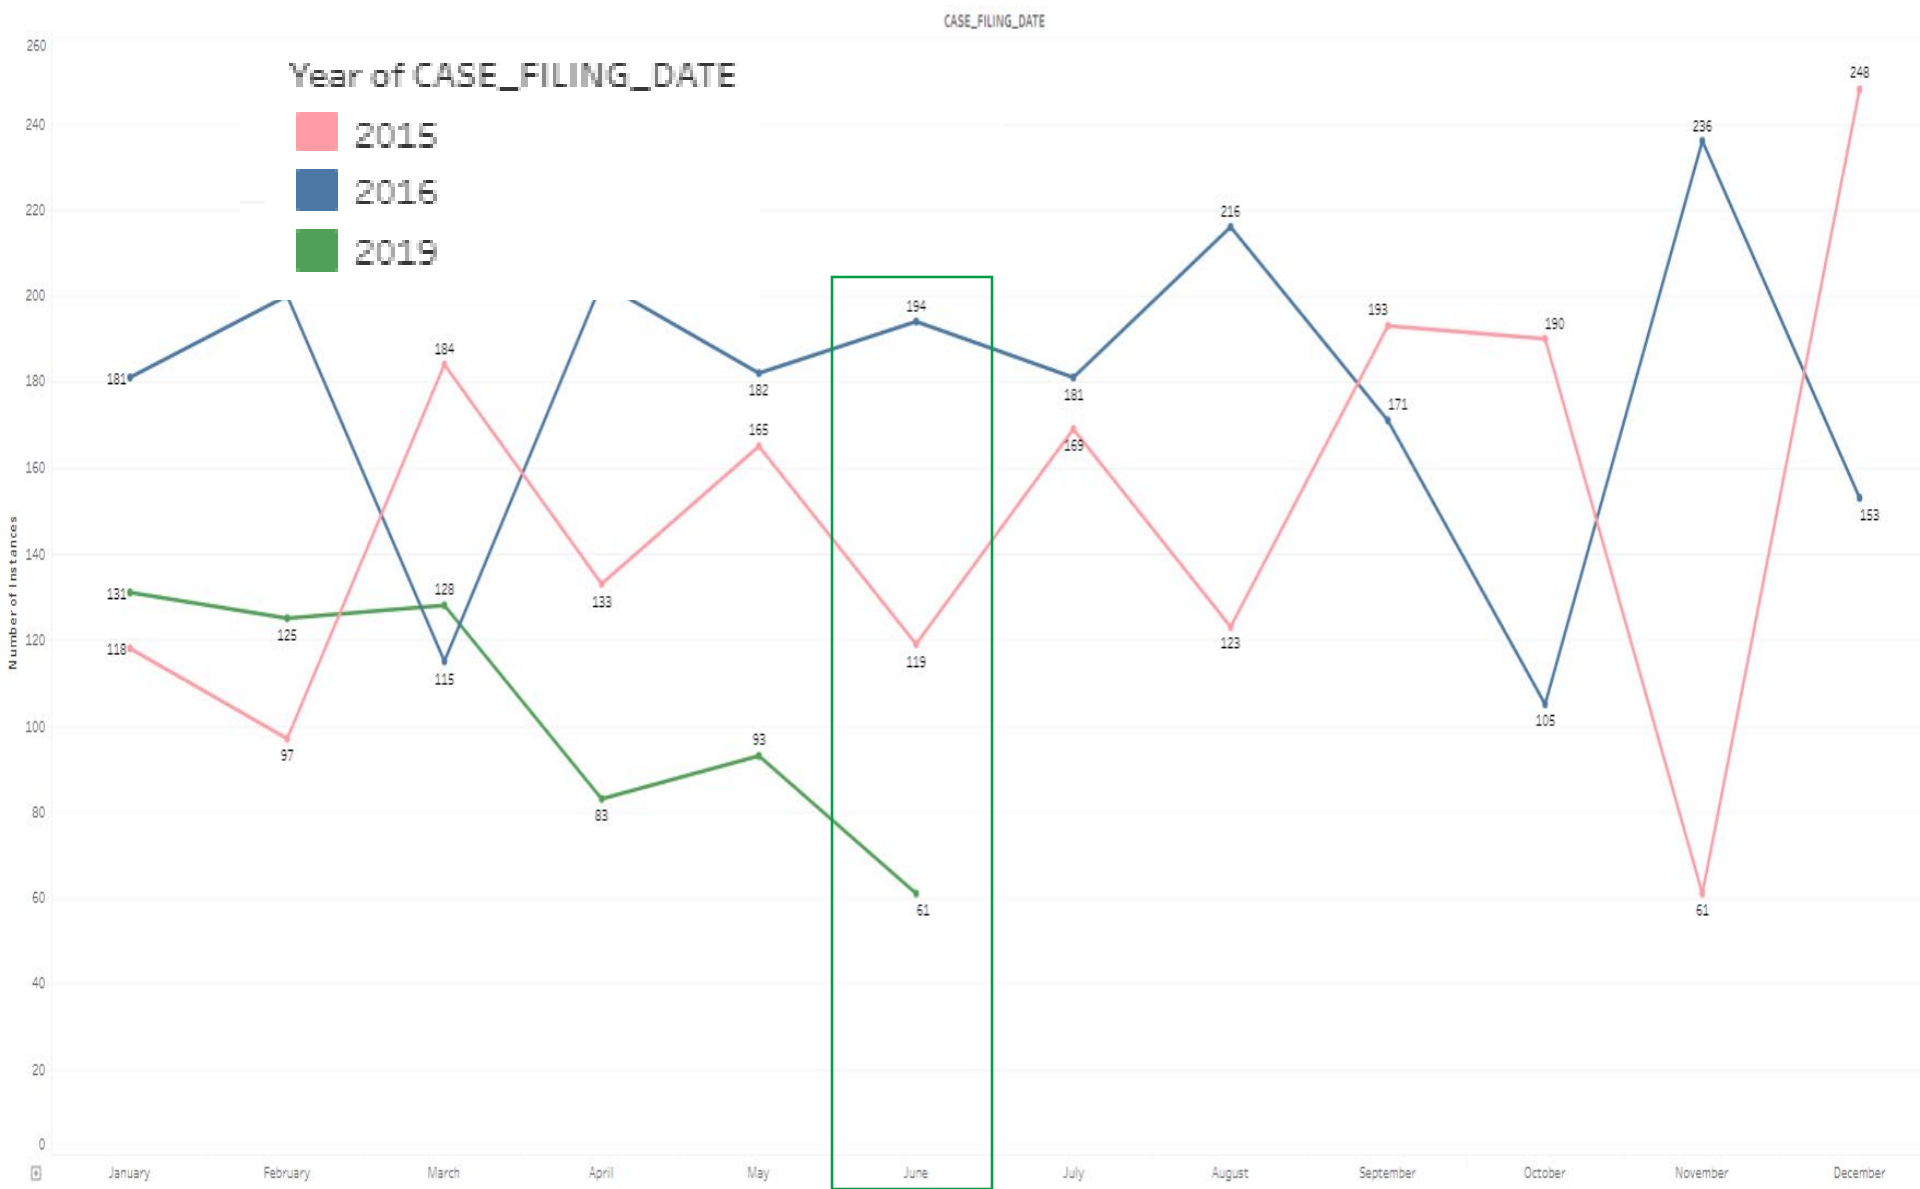

Trend - Defendants and Juveniles Associated to Statistical MF and MD Docket Codes

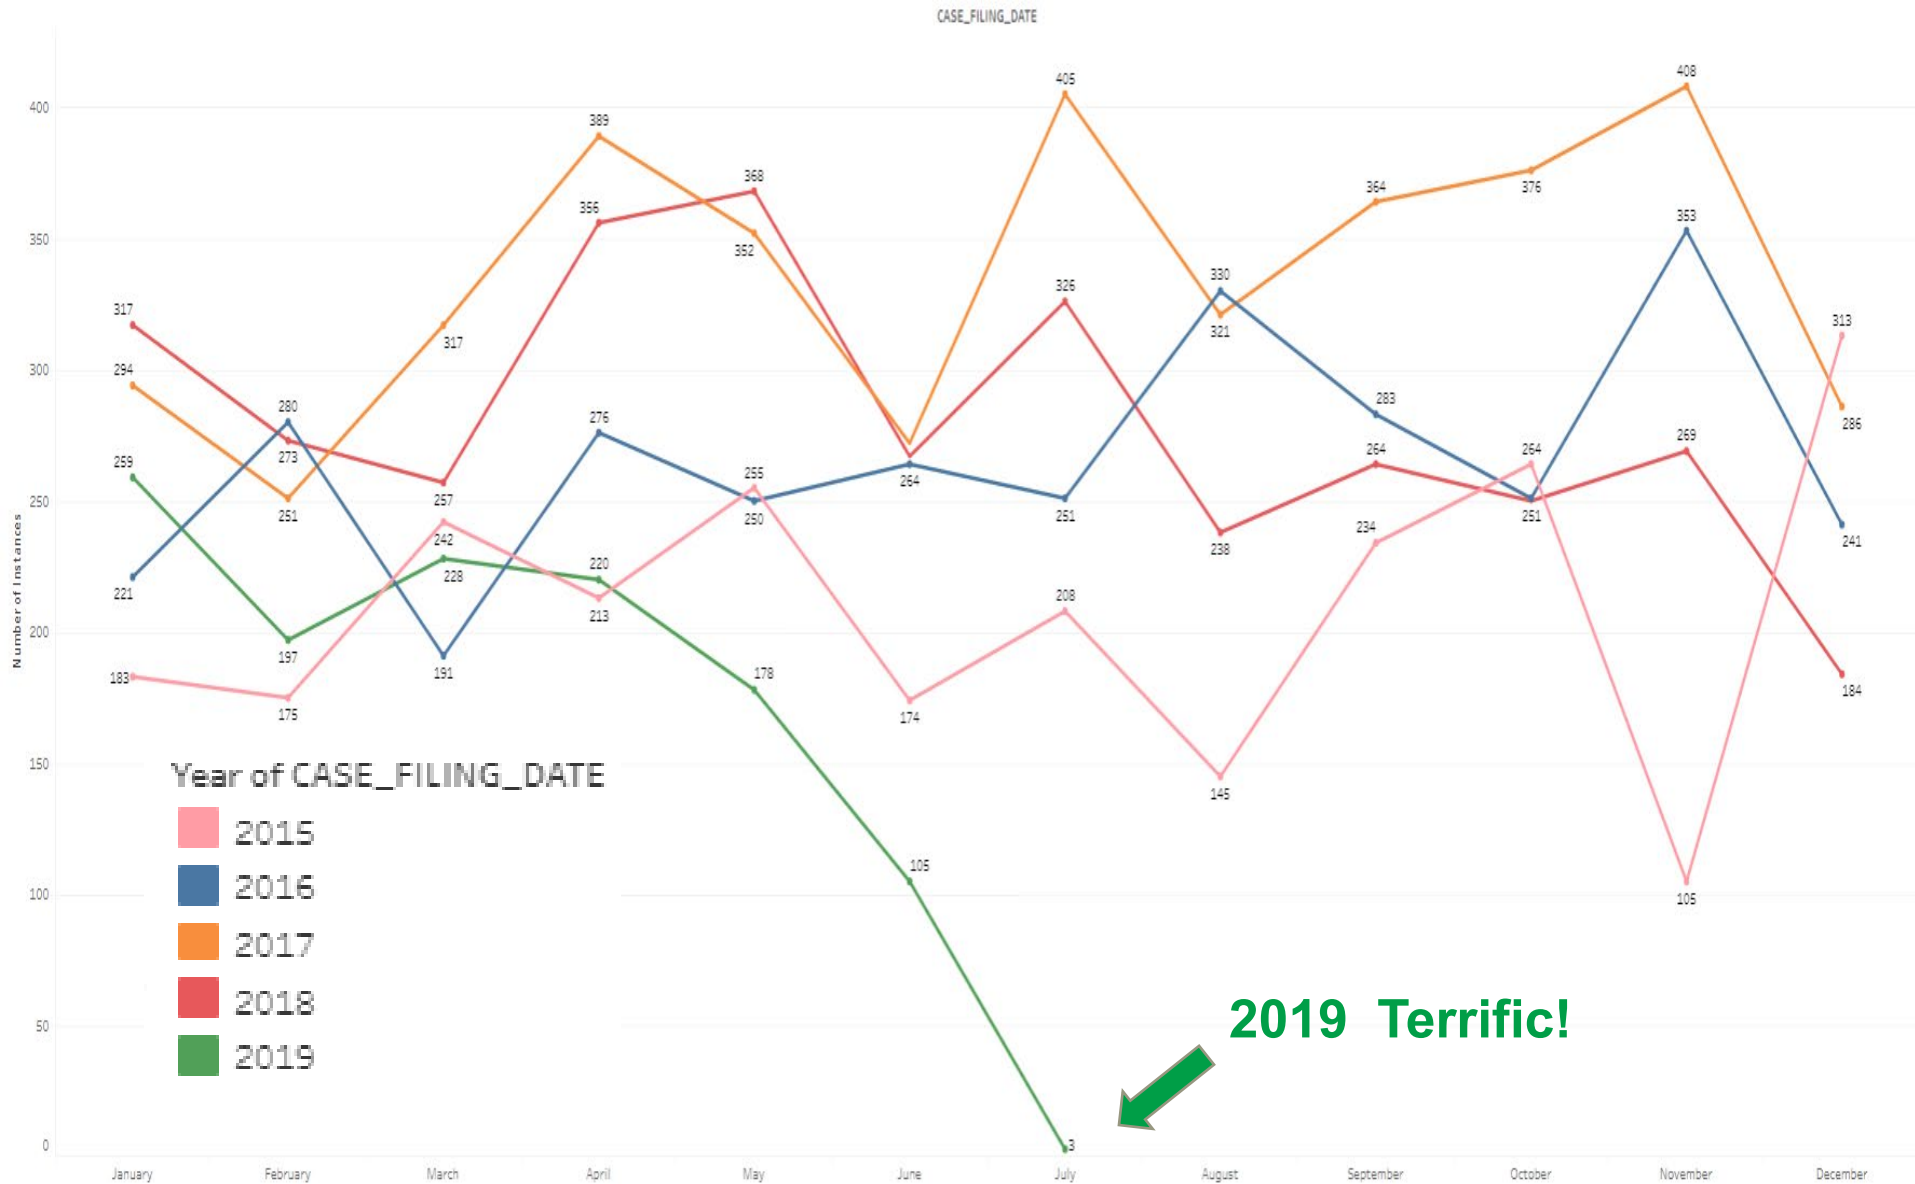

Trend - Defendants and Juveniles Associated to Statistical MF and MD Docket Codes

Trend - Defendants and Juveniles Associated to Statistical MF and MD Docket Codes

Trend - Defendants and Juveniles Associated to Statistical MF and MD Docket Codes

LET'S PLAY A GAME!

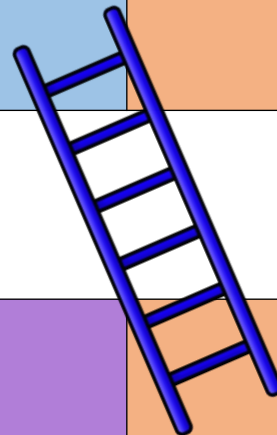

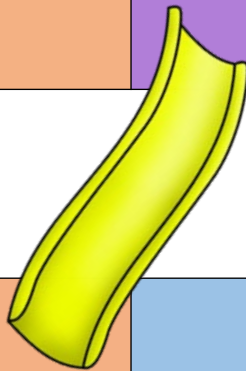

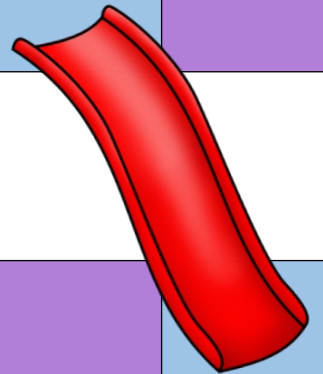

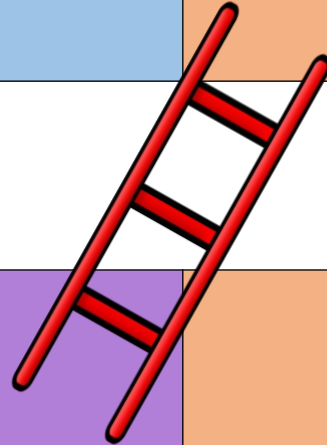

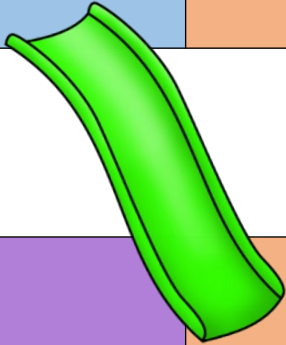

WATCH FOR CHUTES AND LADDERS!

- 1 Each team is a color
- 2 Team answers a question correctly
- 3 Spin the wheel!
Tell us how far you moved
- 4 First team to the FINISH or closest to it WINS!

FINISH

START

Thank You!

Next up: Closing Session

- Closing Remarks
- Data Quality Awards
- Door Prizes

