Updated Information on April Bentonville District Court Dates

Judge Ray Bunch

AS A MATTER OF PUBLIC SAFETY IN RESPONSE TO THE OUTBREAK OF COVID-19

All court dates (Arraignments, Plea/Discovery, Trials and Status Hearings) currently scheduled in the Bentonville District Court for the month of April are canceled. All cases will be re-set and regular Court dates will resume in May, should conditions allow.

People with cases scheduled during the month of April are directed to call the office at 479-271-3120 or to send an email to courtfilings@bentonvillear.com to confirm their new court date. It is each person's obligation to continue to keep themselves up to date as to changes of their court dates.

You can also access your case information by going to <https://justiceweb.bentonvillear.com/justiceweb> and choosing the REPORTS tab at the top. There you can search your name and date of birth which will access pending cases along with most current court dates.

If you wish to resolve your citation without appearing in court, you can go to www.courtinnovations.com/ARBDC .

Small Claims/Civil Complaint forms, Answer forms and a Small Claims Handbook can be found at www.bentonvillear.com . (You will go to the District Court main page and under the Small Claims/Civil tab on the left you can access forms, handbook & FAQs.)

Monthly payments can be made via USPS mail, over the phone (855-579-6456) or by going to www.bentonvilledistrictpayments.com .

We appreciate your patience through this process and apologize for any inconvenience. Please understand that your safety and the safety of our court personnel are of the utmost importance.
