

Public Service Announcement from District Court Monticello Department, 28th State District Court

District Judge Bruce Anderson has announced that the District Court building will reopen on Monday, May 18, 2020. The District Court office will be open during regular hours, which are 8:00 AM to 4:30 PM, Monday through Friday. The District Court will observe the guidelines announced by the Arkansas Department of Health. All persons entering the building will be required to wear face coverings and to maintain 6 feet of distance from other persons. Persons should not attempt to enter the court building if they have a fever of 100.4° or higher, if they have a cough, shortness of breath, sore throat, or other symptoms typical of Covid-19, or if they had been diagnosed as having Covid-19 or exposed to a person who has been diagnosed as having Covid-19. Persons who are unable to enter the court building may contact the court office by telephone at 870-367-4420. Questions may be submitted by email to MDC28dc@gmail.com.

Judge Anderson asks for the understanding and patience of the public as the court seeks to protect the health of the public and court staff as we all deal with the Covid-19 coronavirus.
