

Public Service Announcement from District Court Monticello Department, 28th State District Court

May 15, 2020

District Judge Bruce Anderson has announced that, due to a recent increase in the number of coronavirus cases, the District Court building will not reopen on May 18 but will continue to be closed to the public until further notice. During the closure, court staff will be available to assist the public by telephone. The court office number is 870-367-4420. Questions may also be submitted by email to MDC28dc@gmail.com.

Judge Anderson reminds those who owe fines that payment of fines can be made online at MyFinePayment.com or by telephone at 877-591-8768. There is a nominal service charge for using this service. Persons with questions about fines may contact the court office at the above number or email address.

Judge Anderson asks for the understanding and patience of the public as the court seeks to protect the health of the public and court staff as we all deal with the COVID-19 coronavirus.
