First appearances will take place at their usual time so that bond may be set in criminal matters on Monday at 1:30 p.m. and Wednesday and Friday at 10:30 a.m. These hearings will be closed to the public until the crisis abates. However, should an alternate means of broadcasting the hearings become economically feasible, the Court will post notices on the Courthouse door and to the Media on how to observe these hearings.

Additionally, per the above-referenced Per Curiam all these cancellations are for good cause and the time calculated for speedy trial will be tolled until the next trial setting.

Both Judges warn those persons with a court date in other jurisdictions or in Faulkner or Van Buren County Circuit Court to contact their attorneys, the appropriate court clerk, or the Administrative Office of the Court's website: <https://www.arcourts.gov/news/judiciary-closings-cancellations-changes>, if they are unsure if their matter is still scheduled for a hearing.
