

Media Advisory

In the wake of the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) and out of an abundance of caution, Little Rock District Court, 3rd Division will suspend in-person court operations for the week of March 16th. All trials, first appearances and status reports will be reset by the Court to a future date. All defendants will be notified by mail or telephone. If a defendant has not received notification of their new court date, they should contact the court at (501)371-4454.

A decision regarding court proceedings after the week of March 16th will be made and communicated to all affected parties on or before March 20, 2020.

If defendants or attorneys have questions, they can contact the court at the number listed above.
