CIRCUIT COURT: DOMESTIC RELATIONS

Instructions

The domestic relations disposition form shall be completed and submitted by the attorney filing the initial pleading or other appropriate official as designated by the trial court. This form shall be filed with the court clerk.

1. On the first line, include the case number and the case styling.
2. Select the trial type. Select bench trial if evidence was introduced, even if a verdict was not reached. Non-trial types include any type of disposition that does not involve a bench trial. Examples include dismissals, default judgments, and settlements.
3. Enter the disposition date.
4. Choose the appropriate manner of disposition.
5. Answer whether an interpreter was used for the case and, if so, for whom and what language.
6. Answer whether any party was self-represented (pro se) for any portion of the case.
7. If this case resulted in an annulment or divorce, indicate the date of the marriage and whether there are children born of the marriage. Also indicate whether it was contested and what the grounds for the divorce or annulment were (check only one).
8. If there are children born of the marriage, also complete the Confidential Information Sheet if it has not yet been filed.
9. Public Law 104-193 requires collection of certain information in cases where custody decisions are made or support is ordered. Answer the questions regarding custody, child support, and spousal support. If any of the parties has an order of protection, check the box for who has the order. Indicate if income withholding was ordered. Check N/A if the question does not apply.
